Now & Again

Go-To Recipes, Inspired Menus + Endless Ideas for Reinventing Leftovers • By Julia Turshen • Photographs by David Loftus

From the beloved author of Small Victories, one of the most acclaimed cookbooks of 2016, comes Julia Turshen’s much-anticipated new book. Now & Again features more than 125 delicious and approachable recipes—for snacks, sides, salads, soups, entrées, and desserts—and 20 inspiring menu ideas. This is the kind of advice Julia’s fan base has been asking her for, and here she delivers her can’t-get-enough-of-it dishes and ideas in her familiar, funny, and encouraging voice. More than 60 “It’s Me Again” recipes use up the leftovers in delicious and new ways, and a timeline on every menu makes entertaining stress-free. With more than 100 vivid photographs by renowned food and lifestyle photographer David Loftus and a gingham spine that elevates a go-to resource into a thing of beauty, Now & Again will change the way we gather, eat, and think about leftovers.

Julia Turshen is a writer, recipe developer, and the author of Small Victories. She lives in upstate New York.

David Loftus is a food and lifestyle photographer based in the United Kingdom.

Hygge & West Home

Design for a Cozy Life

By Christiana Coop and Aimee Lagos of Hygge & West

Tastemakers Christiana and Aimee of Hygge & West know that the key to making a house into a home is in the decoration—whether that means embracing natural elements, creating cozy spaces, making room for family, or finding your own personal charm in every space. Hygge & West Home offers a look into 20 covetable homes designed to promote feelings of coziness, companionship, and comfort, from an intimate apartment in San Francisco to a log cabin in Wyoming, a family home in Minneapolis, and a colorful oasis in Brooklyn. With page after page of aspirational interiors, engaging interviews with home owners, and tips on creating similar feelings in any space, this eye-catching book explores what makes a house a truly personal space and offers readers the tools and inspiration to make their home their own.

Christiana Coop and Aimee Lagos are the cofounders of Hygge & West, a popular design company that collaborates with designers, artists, and illustrators to create unique collections of wallpapers, fabrics, and home goods. Christiana lives in San Francisco and Aimee lives in Minneapolis.

Wonders

Spectacular Moments in Nature Photography • Curated by Rhonda Rubinstein and the California Academy of Sciences • Introduction by Dr. Sylvia A. Earle • Essays by Suzi Eszterhas and Dr. Jonathan Foley

Nature is full of fleeting wonders. This breathtaking collection of nature photography reveals rare creatures, transports us to distant landscapes, and captures uncommon moments of drama and beauty in the natural world. From a heart-pounding shot of the Wildebeest Migration to a glimpse of the elusive Pampas cat, each image tells a story about the diversity and grandeur of life on earth. Bold, surprising, and jaw-droppingly beautiful, these photographs are all winners of the California Academy of Sciences' BigPicture Natural World Photography Competition. With more than 100 photographs and captions explaining the scientific phenomena and photographic techniques behind each picture, this book will captivate nature lovers, science enthusiasts, photographers, and adventurers.

Rhonda Rubinstein is the creative director of the California Academy of Sciences and cofounder of the BigPicture Natural World Photography Competition. She lives in San Francisco.

The California Academy of Sciences is a renowned scientific and educational institution in San Francisco.

Dr. Sylvia A. Earle is a legendary oceanographer, explorer, and author. She lives in Oakland, California.

Suzi Eszterhas is an award-winning wildlife photographer. She lives in Petaluma, California.

How to Be Great at Your Job

Get things done. Get the credit. Get ahead. • By Justin Kerr

From an author who climbed to the top of the corporate ladder before reaching age 40, this book takes the guesswork out of career success and breaks down what it takes to excel at your job. It covers the basics, like the universal requirements of every workplace—working with other people, making stellar presentations, communicating effectively over email. And it also goes into how to get promoted sooner, impress the people high up on the corporate ladder, and do it all while maintaining your personal life and without working crazy hours. With helpful tips and simple advice, this professional guidebook is just right for someone new to the workplace or for a mid-life career changer.

Justin Kerr is the president of Imprint Projects and formerly an executive at Gap, Old Navy, Levi's, and UNIQLO. He lives in New York City.

A Year Off

A story about traveling the world—and how to make it happen for you • By Alexandra and David Brown

Alexandra and David Brown spent the first year of their relationship on an around-the-world adventure, and here they've collected their stories into an inspirational guide for would-be travelers. A Year Off follows their international journey, as well as their romance, from discussing the trip on their first date to an adventurous kayak ride in New Zealand, an exhilarating evening in India, a once-in-a-lifetime meal in France, and more. With tips on how to leave your job and how to reenter your career upon returning, the authors offer their lessons on the magic of travel and invite readers to share in the experience, whether from a favorite armchair or out on the road.

Alexandra and David Brown spent the first year of their relationship planning and going on a trip around the world. They are now happily married and live in San Francisco with their daughter.

Season

Big Flavors, Beautiful Food • By Nik Sharma

There are few books that offer home cooks a new way to cook and to think about flavor—and fewer that do it with the clarity and warmth of Nik Sharma’s Season. Season features 100 of the most delicious and intriguing recipes you’ve ever tasted, plus 125 of the most beautiful photographs ever seen in a cookbook. Here Nik, beloved curator of the award-winning food blog A Brown Table, shares a treasury of ingredients, techniques, and flavors that combine in a way that’s both familiar and completely unexpected. These are recipes that take a journey all the way from India by way of the American South to California. It’s a personal journey that opens new vistas in the kitchen, including new methods and integrated by a marvelous use of spices. Even though these are dishes that will take home cooks and their guests by surprise, rest assured there’s nothing intimidating here. Season, like Nik, welcomes everyone to the table!

Recipes include:

- Curry Leaf Popcorn Chicken
- Sweet Potato Fries with Basil Yogurt Sauce
- Roasted Cauliflower, Paneer, and Mixed Lentil Salad
- Butternut Squash and Tea Soup
- Apple Masala Chai Cake

Nik Sharma is the writer, photographer, and recipe developer behind A Brown Table, the award-winning food blog. He lives in Oakland, California.

Cut in Half

The Hidden World Inside Everyday Objects
By Mike Warren • Photographs by Jonathan Woodward

What exactly is inside a laptop, a golf ball, a vacuum cleaner, or a novelty singing fish toy? The insides of these and dozens of other objects are revealed in this photographic exploration of the stuff all around us, exposed and explained. With the help of a high-pressure waterjet cutter able to slice through 4 inches of steel plate, designer and fabricator Mike Warren (creator of the popular Cut in Half YouTube channel) cuts into everything from boom boxes to boxing gloves, oil filters to seashells, describing and demystifying the inner workings and materials of each. With a cleverly die-cut case and gorgeously detailed photography, Cut in Half is a fascinating and accessible popular science look at the extraordinary in the everyday.

Mike Warren is a designer, inventor, and popular science writer steeped in maker culture whose work has been featured in Wired, the New York Times, Popular Scientist, CNET, and New Scientist. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Jonathan Woodward creates food, product, interior, and lifestyle images for a wide range of clients. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Game of Thrones™

A Viewer's Guide to the World of Westeros and Beyond
By Myles McNutt

Bound in gorgeous gold and silver foil, this remarkable volume celebrates and explores the complex stories, relationships, and world building in HBO's Emmy-award winning Game of Thrones series, from Season 1 through Season 7. The book follows the story of Essos and southern Westeros, with fire-breathing dragons and clashing noble houses, and the story of northern Westeros, where the Night King leads his army of the dead across the icy landscape. Mapping bloodlines and battle lines, the approximately 300 pages are filled with stunning photographs, original art, timelines, and charts newly created for this book. This definitive visual guide commemorates this momentous series and offers a must-have companion for every Game of Thrones fan.

Myles McNutt has a PhD in media and cultural studies, is an assistant professor at Old Dominion University, and a TV critic at Cultural Learnings. He lives in Norfolk, Virginia.

The Art of Feminism

Images that Shaped the Fight for Equality, 1857–2017
By Helena Reckitt

Once again, women are on the march. And since its inception in the 19th century, the women's movement has harnessed the power of images to transmit messages of social change and equality to the world. From highlighting the posters of the Suffrage Atelier, through the radical art of Judy Chicago and Carrie Mae Weems, to the cutting-edge work of Sthembile Msezane and Andrea Bowers, this comprehensive international survey traces the way feminists have shaped visual arts and media throughout history. Featuring more than 350 works of art, illustration, photography, performance, and graphic design—along with essays examining the legacy of the radical canon—this rich volume showcases the vibrancy of the feminist aesthetic over the last 150 years.

Helena Reckitt is chair of the Women's Art Library and a senior lecturer in curating at Goldsmiths, University of London.

It's OK to Feel Things Deeply

By Carissa Potter

This book is like a hug from a friend when you need it most: It's both a reminder that it's normal to feel things deeply and a companion for actually feeling better. With tons of empathy and a touch of humor, artist Carissa Potter offers wisdom on how to move through difficult emotions with practical steps to kick-start the process—ranging from soaking in a tub and having a good cry to talking to houseplants or hosting a private dance party. Illustrated in a vibrant eye-catching palette, this boldly authentic book is full of genuine support for pushing through life's tough times or whenever a little love is needed.

Carissa Potter is the author of I Like You, I Love You and founder of the stationery line People I've Loved. She lives in Oakland, California.

Chronicle Books is proud to support the ACLU and its work to protect civil liberties.

Hate Is What We Need

By Ward Schumaker

Words matter. In this important new book, acclaimed artist Ward Schumaker transforms the utterances of the 45th president of the United States of America into provocative text-based paintings. The words gathered in each of the 40 images here are presented as stated by the president (or, in a few instances, by one of his associates), with no further explanation save the date and occasion on which they were said. Offering an alternative to the desensitizing barrage of the news media, Schumaker translates the politics of our moment into visceral works of art.

Ward Schumaker is a San Francisco-based artist whose paintings and hand-painted works have appeared in shows and publications all over the world.

Rich Table

A Cookbook for Making Beautiful Meals at Home • By Sarah and Evan Rich with Carolyn Alburger • Photographs by Alanna Hale

From Sarah and Evan Rich, the proprietors of Michelin-starred Rich Table—one of San Francisco’s most coveted reservations—this debut cookbook brings recipes from the restaurant together with the food the Riches cook for friends and family at home. With humor and inventiveness, these delicious recipes merge the duo’s sensibilities (hers Louisiana, his New Jersey) with a respect for the ingredients of Northern California into food that you’ll love, wherever you like. Full-color photographs and a textured cover with foil stamping capture the rustic elegance of the food and the restaurant, while 85 meticulously tested recipes span salads, vegetables, meat and fish, sweets, drinks, and the pasta dishes that send diners into raptures. This is thoughtful, innovative cooking for those who want to set a rich table at home.

Sarah and Evan Rich are the chef-proprietors of Rich Table and RT Rotisserie. They live in San Francisco.

Carolyn Alburger is director of Eater Cities. She lives in San Francisco.

Alanna Hale is a food and lifestyle photographer based in San Francisco.

A Sloth's Guide to Mindfulness

By Ton Mak

It's OK to slow down. Take a pause and focus on your breath. Let the other animals run around, you do you.

Follow a serene and smiley sloth through a series of light meditations and daily reflections with this unexpected and snuggable guide. From simple breathing exercises and guided visualizations to the benefits of chewing your leaves slowly and staying present while hanging from a tree, this little illustrated book of mindfulness will help readers discover the path to a peaceful, philosophical life. With playful advice and delightfully charming illustrations, this no-sweat approach to enlightenment is a sweet reminder to take it slow and smile.

Ton Mak is an artist and meditation enthusiast based in Shanghai who has collaborated with Lamborghini, Adidas, Vans, Moleskine, Gucci, Swiss Air, and more.

We can see more clearly in the present by emptying our minds.

Be thankful.

Sometimes just taking pause for five minutes is the best practice.

History As They Saw It

Iconic Moments from the Past in Color
By Wolfgang Wild and Jordan Lloyd

This revolutionary photography collection is as close to time travel as it gets. Featuring 120 historic black-and-white photographs thoroughly restored and rendered in color, this book illuminates some of the most iconic moments in history, from the sinking of the Titanic to the construction of the Golden Gate Bridge. Brought to life with vibrant color, these incredible images effectively blur the distinction between past and present and bring history within arm's reach. With a timeline spanning more than 100 years, from 1839 to 1949, this unique collection will amaze history and photography buffs alike, offering new perspectives on significant moments of the 19th and 20th centuries.

Wolfgang Wild is a curator and the creator of Retronaut, a brand that seeks to show “the past like you wouldn’t believe.” He lives near Oxford, England.

Jordan Lloyd is the director of Dynamichrome, a team of creative experts dedicated to bringing the past to life through digital color reconstruction. He lives in London.

Alex Prager: Silver Lake Drive

Introduction by Michael Govan • Interview by Nathalie Herschdorfer

Alex Prager is one of the truly original image makers of our time. She creates delicately staged compositions that are familiar yet strange, utterly compelling, and unerringly memorable. Silver Lake Drive showcases Prager’s boldest creations to date: from the early Polyester series, through her film collaborations with actor Bryce Dallas Howard, to the tour-de-force Face in the Crowd—shot on a Hollywood sound stage with more than 150 performers—and her 2016 commission for the Paris Opera, La Grande Sortie. In a deluxe hardcover package with a textured two-piece case and foil stamping, Silver Lake Drive is an essential collectible for Prager’s fans and an illuminating introduction to her work for new audiences.

Alex Prager is an Emmy Award–winning, Los Angeles–based photographer and filmmaker whose work hangs in major museums all over the world.

Michael Govan has been the director of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art since 2006.

Nathalie Herschdorfer is the director of the Museum of Fine Arts, Le Locle, in Switzerland, and the curator at the Foundation for the Exhibition of Photography.

The Land of Stone Flowers

A Fairy Guide to the Mythical Human Being • By Sveta Dorosheva

Classic fairytales get a refreshing satirical twist in this collection of illustrated stories in which gnomes, pixies, and other fairy folk share tall tales of the strange and unbelievable human world and its inhabitants. Brimming with keen observations and wild assumptions on human anatomy, customs, languages, rituals, dwellings, and more, The Land of Stone Flowers is as absurd as it is astounding, examining contradictory and nonsensical human behaviors through the lens of the fantastic: from the bewitching paper wizards who live in humans' wallets to their invisible hats, known as "moods," which cloud their view of the world. Bursting with intricate and evocative illustrations, The Land of Stone Flowers will draw readers into a world of fantasy and fable that slyly reveals many hidden truths about human existence.

#1960Now

Photographs of Civil Rights Activists and Black Lives Matter Protests • By Sheila Pree Bright • Introduction by Alicia Garza

The fight for equality continues, from 1960 to now. Combining portraits of past and present social justice activists with documentary images from recent protests throughout the United States, #1960Now sheds light on the parallels between the 1960s Civil Rights Movement and the Black Lives Matter movement of today. Sheila Pree Bright's striking black-and-white photographs capture the courage and conviction of '60s elder statesmen and a new generation of activists, offering a powerful reminder that the fight for justice is far from over. #1960Now represents an important new contribution to American protest photography.

Sheila Pree Bright is an award-winning fine art photographer based in Atlanta, Georgia.

Alicia Garza is an organizer, writer, and the cocreator of #BlackLivesMatter, an international movement and organizing project focused on combatting anti-Black state-sanctioned violence. She lives and works in Oakland, California.

They Drew as They Pleased: Volume 4

The Hidden Art of Disney's Mid-Century Era: The 1950s and 1960s
By Didier Ghez • Foreword by Eric and Susan McKinsey Goldberg

The 1950s and 1960s at The Walt Disney Studios marked unprecedented stylistic directions brought on by the mid-century modern and graphic sensibilities of a new wave of artists. This volume explores the contributions of these heroes with special emphasis on the art of Lee Blair, Mary Blair, Tom Oreb, John Dunn, and Walt Peregoy. It includes never-before-seen images from Cinderella, Alice in Wonderland, Peter Pan, and Sleeping Beauty and discusses Disney's first forays into television, commercials, space, and science projects—even the development of theme parks. Drawing on interviews and revealing hundreds of rediscovered images that inspired Disney's films during one of its most prolific eras, this volume captures the rich stories of the artists who brought the characters to life and helped shape the future of animation.

Didier Ghez is the author of Disney's Grand Tour, Disneyland Paris, They Drew as They Pleased: The Hidden Art of Disney's Golden Age: The 1930s, and They Drew as They Pleased: The Hidden Art of Disney's Musical Years: The 1940s. In 2018, Ghez received the prestigious June Foray Award for significant and benevolent impact on the art and industry of animation. He lives in Florida.

Eric Goldberg is best known for his work with Walt Disney Animation Studios on Aladdin, Pocahontas, Hercules, and Moana. In February 2011, he was awarded the prestigious Winsor McCay Award from ASIFA-Hollywood for lifetime achievement in animation.

Susan McKinsey Goldberg directed two sequences on Fantasia/2000, creating a unique look that garnered her the animation industry's highest honor, the Annie Award, for production design.

The Art of Ralph Breaks the Internet: Wreck-It Ralph 2

By Jessica Julius • Foreword by Rich Moore and Phil Johnston

In the follow-up to the Oscar–nominated film Wreck-It Ralph, our hero leaves his arcade for the expansive universe of the Internet. Disney’s artists have brought the world of the Internet (a world you may think you know) to life in an all-new, imaginative way. Through never-before-seen concept art, character sketches, storyboards, and colorscripts, along with interviews with the production team, The Art of Ralph Breaks the Internet reveals the artistic process behind Disney’s highly anticipated sequel.

Jessica Julius is director, creative affairs, at Walt Disney Animation Studios and author of The Art of Zootopia. She lives in Los Angeles.

Rich Moore is the director of Ralph Breaks the Internet, the Oscar-winning Zootopia, and Wreck-it Ralph.

Be Everything at Once

Tales of a Cartoonist Lady Person • By Dami Lee

Why do things in moderation when you can just do everything? Cartoonist Dami Lee’s hilarious four-panel comic collection illustrates her experience navigating identity, relationships, pop culture, and misunderstandings about basic human interactions, from growing up as a South Korean immigrant kid in the foreign land of Texas to finding her home as a professional cartoonist in cyberspace. With favorite selections from Dami’s massively popular web-comic As Per Usual, as well as many never-before-seen comics, Be Everything at Once is earnestly relatable and endlessly funny, full of (mostly) true stories for anyone who obsesses over their favorite snacks, struggles to take the best selfie, tears up at the sight of a perfect dog, or is maybe just trying to find their place.

Dami Lee is a New York–based web cartoonist and illustrator whose work has appeared in the New Yorker, the Verge, and more.

Ai Weiwei: Yours Truly

Art, Human Rights, and the Power of Writing a Letter
 Edited by David Spalding • With essays by Ai Weiwei, Cheryl Haines, Jasmine Heiss, and David Spalding

Renowned artist Ai Weiwei engaged nearly 900,000 visitors in a conversation about human rights with his art installation @Large: Ai Weiwei on Alcatraz. In one participatory piece, Yours Truly, visitors sent 92,829 postcards to prisoners of conscience around the world. This book delves into those postcards' lasting impact. Five former prisoners and their loved ones reflect on the experience of receiving hundreds of postcards while imprisoned. Essays and a statement by Ai Weiwei contextualize this extraordinary project. And photographs taken during the exhibition show visitors and the messages they wrote. The book also includes four pre-addressed, tear-out postcards, inviting readers—whether art lovers or activists—to send hope to individuals still imprisoned for defending human rights.

Ai Weiwei is among the world's most celebrated contemporary artists and is an outspoken critic of injustice. He lives in Berlin.

Cheryl Haines is principal of Haines Gallery and founding executive director of the FOR-SITE Foundation. She lives in San Francisco.

Jasmine Heiss has worked on criminal justice issues at the local, national, and global level, including for Amnesty International USA. She lives in Philadelphia.

David Spalding is the executive director of Haines Gallery and consulting editor for the FOR-SITE Foundation. He lives in San Francisco.

Living Maps

An Atlas of Cities Personified • By Adam Dant

This curious collection of maps explores the unique personalities of 28 cities around the world, shedding light on the strange and marvelous ways in which humans interact with the places they call home. Artist and creative cartographer Adam Dant dissects Manhattan in an anatomical diagram, traces the form of a Picasso nude in the streets of Monaco, and transforms the crisscrossing paths of boats on the Bosphorus into the nerves of Istanbul. Dant draws on the history, culture, and geography of each city and on the beguiling aesthetic of antique maps to create gorgeous works of cartographic art. Witty, insightful, and adorned with a gold foil-stamped cover, this book will capture the imaginations of travelers, map enthusiasts, history buffs, and dreamers.

Adam Dant is an internationally exhibited artist and a recipient of the Jerwood Drawing Prize. He lives in London.

Inside American Gods

By Emily Haynes • Foreword by Neil Gaiman

Neil Gaiman's bestselling and most beloved novel, American Gods, is now a critically acclaimed Starz television series. This official companion to the series takes Gaiman fans behind the scenes of this compelling, surreal show in which Old Gods and New Gods battle for the hearts and minds of modern-day people. Inside American Gods dives deep into the show's character development and world building, featuring interviews with actors Gillian Anderson, Crispin Glover, and Ian McShane about how they brought this cult favorite to the screen. Packed with previously unpublished set photos, concept art, and production designs, the book covers Season 1—as well as a teaser of exclusive content for Season 2—in a spectacular hardcover package sure to please fans of the book and the series.

"One of the most imaginative, adventurous, and deeply weird experiments on television—an entrancingly trippy metaphorical melee that elevates an investigation of American identity to a supernatural plane."

—Boston Globe

Emily Haynes is an author and the cofounder of BluePen, an editorial development agency. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband and two sons.

Neil Gaiman is an award-winning author of books, graphic novels, short stories, and films for all ages. His titles include Norse Mythology, The Graveyard Book, Coraline, The View from the Cheap Seats, The Ocean at the End of the Lane, Neverwhere, and the Sandman series of graphic novels, among other works. Born in the United Kingdom, he now lives in the United States.

What the Fact?!

365 Strange Days in History • By Gabe Henry

Truly stranger than fiction, this daily illustrated collection of unusual trivia provides readers fascinating detail on some of the weirdest moments in history. Drawing from a range of subjects including politics, sports, the arts, pop culture, and more, each day of the year explores one What the . . . fact or event in entries that go beyond the factoid to uncover odd moments through the ages (like the day first pig actually flew [November 4, 1909] or the United States ran out of toilet paper [December 19, 1973]). With dozens of illustrations and hundreds of pages of daily or dip-in-and-out entertainment, What the Fact?! gives trivia fans a way to learn something new and strange every day.

Gabe Henry is a New York–based writer and former staff member of the New York Historical Society. His writing interweaves history and humor to cover subjects including politics, sport, art, film, literature, and pop culture.

Writers and Their Cats

By Alison Nastasi

Mark Twain, Alice Walker, Haruki Murakami, Ursula K. Le Guin—this volume celebrates 45 famous authors who have shared their homes and hearts with furry feline friends. The photographs and stories in Writers and Their Cats capture the special bond between wordsmith and mouser. From the six-toed kitties who still inhabit the Ernest Hemingway Home and Museum in Florida to the mewling muses of mystery writer Lilian Jackson Braun, cats are clearly, in the words of Gloria Steinem, “a writer’s most logical and agreeable companion.”

Alison Nastasi is a journalist and the author of Artists and Their Cats, also from Chronicle Books. She lives in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Endings

Photographic Stories of Love, Loss, Heartbreak, and Beginning Again
By Caitlin Cronenberg and Jessica Ennis • Foreword by Mary Harron

Featuring some of today's most beloved actors, these piercing photographic vignettes capture female characters in the throes of powerful emotional transformations. Photographer Caitlin Cronenberg and art director Jessica Ennis collected stories of heartbreak, relationship endings, and new beginnings—fictional but often inspired by real life—and set out to convey the raw emotions that are exposed in those most vulnerable of states. Collaborating with celebrated talents such as Julianne Moore, Keira Knightley, and Gugu Mbatha-Raw, Cronenberg and Ennis developed each character, built her world, and then photographed as she lived the role before the camera. The resulting collection is a bold look at the experience of losing or leaving love and will speak to anyone who appreciates art, photography, and the strength of facing emotional depths head-on.

Caitlin Cronenberg is an award-winning photographer and director whose work has appeared in publications across the globe, including the New York Times and W Magazine. She lives in Toronto.

Jessica Ennis is an art director, set designer, and stop-motion animator who has produced sets for clients including MTV, Microsoft, and HBO. She is based in New York.

Mary Harron is a Canadian filmmaker, director, and screenwriter known for acclaimed films like I Shot Andy Warhol, American Psycho, and the Netflix miniseries Alias Grace.

Nightcap

More than 40 Cocktails to Close Out Any Evening
By Kara Newman • Photographs by Antonis Achilleos

A nightcap is the perfect way to end the night, and author Kara Newman knows just how to make them. This gifty, foil-accented book contains more than 40 cocktail recipes—some to keep the night going, some that will help ease you to sleep, some that can double as dessert, and some that can soothe the stomach after a hearty meal. There are classics like the sweet and creamy Brandy Alexander, new takes on old favorites like the Black Manhattan, which swaps an aperitif for the classic vermouth, and simple new ideas like the Open & Shut, which combines equal parts amaro and cognac for a slow sipper. Whatever kind of night it's been, Nightcap is the perfect way to top it off.

Kara Newman is the spirits editor at Wine Enthusiast magazine and the author of Shake. Stir. Sip. She lives in New York City.

Antonis Achilleos is a photographer based in New York City.

This Book Will Put You to Sleep

By Professor K. McCoy and Dr. Hardwick

It is sadly true that it is not always easy to fall asleep. This gently amusing, highly effective anthology of soporific dullness has been carefully curated to put readers to sleep as quickly as possible. With a pillowy case wrap, stultifying illustrations, and pages of sheep to count, this giftable god-send for the under-rested features dozens of snoozy short texts, including “The Motion of Sand Dunes,” “The Administrative Bureaucracy of the Byzantine Empire,” “White Noise: A Technical Explanation,” and many dozens more—though good luck reading very far on any one evening. Insomniacs will also appreciate “A Staring Contest with Fifty Cats,” “Some Interesting Mathematical Theorems,” “The Dullest Entries from Interesting Diaries,” and other zzzzzzzz.

Professor K. McCoy and Dr. Hardwick are both currently asleep somewhere in London.

The Dreamer

By Il Sung Na

Once, there was a pig who admired birds. But he could never join them. Or could he?

Thus begins the journey of a pig with big dreams, and the perseverance to make them come true. He develops flight plans, builds experimental contraptions, and has far-flung adventures, but at the end of the day, his favorite thing to do is still to sit and watch for those he loves best: the birds. Il Sung Na creates a world at once whimsical and aspirational, where anything is possible and, yes, even pigs can learn to fly.

Il Sung Na was born in Seoul, South Korea. In 2001, he moved to London to pursue a BFA in illustration and animation at Kingston University, where he discovered a passion for children's books. He lives in Kansas City, Missouri.

The newest collaboration from the creators of Her Right Foot

What Can a Citizen Do?

By Dave Eggers • Illustrated by Shawn Harris

This empowering and timeless title from acclaimed duo Dave Eggers and Shawn Harris is a civics primer—a book for kids about what it means to be a citizen. With humor, imagination, inclusiveness, and pluck, a group of diverse kids turns a lonely island into a community and illustrates a journey from what the world should be to what the world could be.

Dave Eggers is the author of many books, including Her Right Foot and This Bridge Will Not Be Gray. He is the cofounder of: Voice of Witness, an oral-history series focused on human rights; 826 National, a network of writing and tutoring centers; and ScholarMatch, which connects donors and under-resourced students to make college possible. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Shawn Harris is an artist and musician who lives and works in Morongo Valley, California.

Ivy + Bean One Big Happy Family

Book 11 • By Annie Barrows • Illustrated by Sophie Blackall

For all those fans who have been clamoring for the next Ivy & Bean book, here it is!

Ivy's worried. She's read a lot of books about only children, so she knows that they are sometimes spoiled rotten. They don't share their toys. They never do any work. They scream and cry when they don't get their way. Spoiler alert! Ivy doesn't have any brothers or sisters. How can she keep from getting spoiled? She could give away all her clothes, but she'd probably get in trouble. She could give away all her toys, but she likes her toys. There's really only one solution: she needs a baby sister, on the double! Luckily, as we're about to discover in this hilarious chapter book, Ivy and Bean know just where to get one.

HELP MUH!

On Saturday, Bean was unfortunately being swallowed by quicksand. First her feet—sturl!—and then her legs—sturl!—and then her middle—sturl! Inch by inch, she was sucked to her doom.

It was a tragic scene.
Nancy came into the living room and unrolled her yoga mat.
Bean struggled for survival.

Annie Barrows is the author of the YA novel Nothing, and the best-selling novel The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society. She lives in Northern California.

Sophie Blackall is a celebrated artist. Her books have won awards such as the Caldecott Medal, the Ezra Jack Keats Award, and the Founders Award from the Society of Illustrators. She lives in Brooklyn, New York.

TouchThinkLearn: 123

By Xavier Deneux

High design, brilliant graphics, essential learning skills—these features distinguish the TouchThinkLearn titles, presenting knowledge in a new dimension. Xavier Deneux applies the same unique vision that informed TouchThinkLearn: ABC to this year's most innovative counting book. Die-cut numerals and shapes stimulate understanding of essential concepts, inviting youngest readers to engage in a meaningful and tangible hands-on experience of numbers by tracing figures and shapes to coordinate concepts and images.

Xavier Deneux trained as a set designer but then applied a lifelong passion for child development to more than 100 books, including the TouchThinkLearn series. He lives in Paris, France.

At last, a book that answers the centuries-old question: What happened to the dinosaurs?

T. Rex Time Machine

By Jared Chapman

When two hungry dinosaurs jump into a time machine, they're transported to an unbelievable, magical, surreal future: RIGHT HERE, RIGHT NOW! On the T. Rexes' madcap voyage into the unknown, they encounter the many wonders of the modern world: Police cars! Phones! Microwaves! They don't know how they'll get home—but why would they want to? Acclaimed author and illustrator Jared Chapman combines two favorite kid topics—time travel and dinosaurs—with bold colors, big jokes, and a hilarious escapade. This raucous, laugh-out-loud adventure will delight the very young and keep older readers giggling long into the future.

Jared Chapman is the author and illustrator of many books for young readers, including Vegetables in Underwear and Fruits in Suits. He lives in Texas with his family.

Animal City

By Joan Negrescolor

Nina journeys to a secret jungle city populated by animals, plants, and lost objects. The reason for her visit: story hour, where a book's power holds the wild in thrall. The animals are eager for stories about space, the sea, and other worlds. But their favorite story of all is the one told here: a story about a mysterious place, laden with legend and lore, and now overtaken by nature. Five Pantone colors infuse each illustrated spread with a vibrant, electric energy, making this powerful celebration of nature—and stories—as vivid visually as its narrative is engrossing.

Lights! Camera! Alice!

The Thrilling True Adventures of the First Woman Filmmaker
By Mara Rockliff • Illustrated by Simona Ciraolo

Meet Alice Guy-Blaché. She made movies—some of the very first movies, and some of the most exciting! Blow up a pirate ship? Why not? Crawl into a tiger's cage? Of course! Leap off a bridge onto a real speeding train? It will be easy! Driven by her passion for storytelling, Alice saw a potential for film that others had not seen before, allowing her to develop new narratives, new camera angles, new techniques, and to surprise her audiences again and again. With daring and vision, Alice Guy-Blaché introduced the world to a thrilling frontier of imagination and adventure, and became one of filmmaking's first and greatest innovators. Mara Rockliff tells the story of a girl who grew up loving stories and became an acclaimed storyteller and an inspiration in her own right.

Mara Rockliff has authored many books for children, including: Anything But Ordinary Addie: The True Story of Adelaide Herrmann, Queen of Magic; Around America to Win the Vote; and Mesmerized: How Ben Franklin Solved a Mystery that Baffled All of France. She lives in Pennsylvania.

Simona Ciraolo is a children's book author and illustrator. She grew up in Italy where she received a degree in animation from the National Film School. She also earned an MA in children's book illustration at Cambridge. She lives in London.

Hats of Faith

By Medeia Cohan • Illustrated by Sarah Walsh

Hats of Faith is a simple and striking introduction to the shared custom of religious head coverings. With bright images and a carefully researched interfaith text, this thoughtful book inspires understanding and celebrates our culturally diverse modern world.

Medeia Cohan has worked as a gallery curator and an entrepreneur. Her belief that early familiarity with faith-based customs will lead to kinder future generations inspired her to create this book. This is her first children's book. She lives in Glasgow, Scotland, but was born in the United States and frequently returns to visit family.

Sarah Walsh has illustrated a wide range of projects, from toys and home décor to apparel and greeting cards, as well as children's books and activity projects such as Draw Bridge, also published by Chronicle Books. She currently lives in Kansas City.

You and Me, Me and You: Brothers

By Miguel Tanco

The beauty of the brotherly bond is on display in this touching tribute to a special sibling relationship. Whimsical illustrations capture the highlights of brotherhood: building sandcastles, flying a kite, making mischief, and cherishing childhood moments together. Bright pops of Pantone orange bestow each illustrated spread with charm, and a cloth spine adds a delightful specialness. At once a sweet picture book for young children and a treasured gift for parents, this heartfelt testament to the inimitable brotherly bond goes straight to the heart.

Miguel Tanco is the author and illustrator of more than 40 books, including You and Me, Me and You, which has been translated into 8 languages. Born in Spain, he now lives in Milan, Italy.

I Hate My Cats (A Love Story)

By Davide Cali • Illustrated by Anna Pirolli

Ginger is the weird one. She plays with peas, purrs at artichokes, and has a strange fondness for chicken (but only the neighbor's chicken). Then there's Fred. His greatest talent? Sleeping. Oh, and hiding. And when he's not hiding, he's conspiring with Ginger to destroy the house! Such is life with cats. . . can't live with 'em, can't live without 'em—if you love them, that is. And yet the question remains: Why are these captivating creatures so marvelously maddening?! From internationally bestselling author Davide Cali, this humorous picture book about a cat owner and his beguiling felines celebrates quirky cat companions, impurrfections and all.

Davide Cali has published more than 40 books, including When an Elephant Falls in Love, A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to School . . ., and I Didn't Do My Homework Because . . ., which has been translated into 21 languages. He lives in France and Italy.

Monster School

By Kate Coombs • Illustrated by Lee Gatlin

Twilight's here. The death bell rings. Everyone knows what the death bell brings—it's time for class! You're in the place where goblins wail and zombies drool. (That's because they're kindergartners.) Welcome to Monster School. In this entertaining collection of poems, award-winning poet Kate Coombs and debut artist Lee Gatlin bring to vivid life a wide and playful cast of characters (outgoing, shy, friendly, funny, prickly, proud) that may seem surprisingly like the kids you know . . . even if these kids are technically monsters.

Kate Coombs is an award-winning author of original fairy tales, poems, middle-grade fantasy novels, and picture books, including the critically acclaimed Water Sings Blue. She lives in Bountiful, Utah.

Lee Gatlin makes monsters and art in Athens, Georgia, where he lives with his wife, son, and two cats.

Lowriders Blast from the Past

By Cathy Camper • Illustrated by Raúl the Third

When new friends Lupe, Flapjack, and Elirio are each bullied by Las Matamoscas, they know they're going to like one another. When they find out they all love lowrider cars, they know they'll be friends for life. But the bullies won't leave the Lowriders alone—and they don't let any girls or babies into car clubs. Can these three determined outcasts prove they deserve to be in the car show? Humor, Spanish words, and lowrider culture come together in this heart-warming graphic novel of three friends navigating the bumpy terrain of friendship, bullying, and standing up for what you believe in. ¡Vámonos!

Cathy Camper is the author of several books, including the Lowriders series, each book of which can be read as a stand-alone title.

A graduate of VONA/Voices writing workshops for people of color, Cathy works as a librarian in Portland, Oregon, where she does outreach to schools and kids in grades K–12.

Raúl the Third is the winner of the Pura Belpré Award for Illustration for his work in Lowriders to the Center of the Earth. Raul visits classrooms throughout the country where he spreads his love of drawing and comic books to students of all ages. He lives in Massachusetts.

The House in Poplar Wood

By K. E. Ormsbee

For as long as the Vickery twins can remember, Lee and his mother have served Memory, while Felix and his father assist Death. This is the Agreement. But one Halloween, Gretchen Whipple smashes her way into their lives. Her bargain is simple: If the twins help her solve the murder of local girl Essie Hasting, she'll help them break the Agreement. The more the three investigate, however, the more they realize that something's gone terribly wrong in their town. Death is on the loose, and if history repeats itself, Essie's might not be the last murder in Poplar Wood. Simultaneously heartwarming and delightfully spooky, The House in Poplar Wood is a story about a boy's desire to be free, a girl's desire to make a difference, and a family's desire to be together again.

Poplar House would forever be divided into two parts—east and west.

On the east side, Felix would live with his father and Death.

On the west side, Lee would live with his mother and Memory.

Their parents would never set eyes on each other for the rest of their days.

Felix would never see his mother, and Lee would never see his father.

The twins could meet, but only outside the house.

That was the Agreement, and it would stand in perpetuity.

K. E. Ormsbee hails from the Bluegrass State and lives in Austin, Texas. Halloween is her favorite day of the year, and she believes you're never too old to dress up. She is also the author of The Water and the Wild and The Doorway and the Deep.

Salt

By Hannah Moskowitz

Roaming the Mediterranean Sea on sailboats and hunting down monsters is the only life seventeen-year-old Indi and his siblings have ever known. He never loved it, but now that his parents are gone—vanished during a hunt three months ago—it’s harder and harder to fight his desire to escape. He’s constantly battling his ferocious love for his siblings and the temptation of his parents’ journal, which contains directions to a treasure that their parents hinted at. Maybe it’s something valuable enough to distract Beleza from her mission to hunt down the monster that killed their parents. Something that would take the little kids away from the sea that’s turning Oscar into a pirate and wasting Zulu’s brilliant six-year-old mind. Something that could give Indi a normal life.

Acclaimed author Hannah Moskowitz has reinvented yet another genre in this ridiculously propulsive epic that is part seafaring epic, part coming-of-age tale, and a totally warm-hearted story of a boy who loves his family and just wants to figure his own self out—if only the fate of the world weren’t on his shoulders.

Hannah Moskowitz is the author of many books for teenagers, including A History of Glitter and Blood and Gena/Finn, both awarded the Bank Street College of Education Best Book of the Year. She lives in Maryland.

A companion novel to Piper Perish!

Art Boss

By Kayla Cagan

Artist Piper Perish has moved from her hometown of Houston, Texas, to New York City. Her days are spent exploring; her nights are filled with painting. It's her lifelong dream come true . . . Except life in the city isn't as glamorous as it looks from afar. Piper's high-pressure work as an assistant to a famous modern artist takes away time from her own art. And Piper's new friend Grace, a budding activist, has Piper beginning to wonder if making great art is really enough.

In a story that stands alone but can be read as a companion novel to Piper Perish, acclaimed author Kayla Cagan returns with Piper's powerful and utterly authentic journey of growing up into a strong, independent young woman—as she learns how to make life about art, and how to make that art matter. Art Boss will have readers asking big questions along with Piper. What is art for? What can art do? And how can a young artist change the world?

A vibrant novel of love, girl power, and coming of age perfect for fans of Stephanie Perkins and Jenny Han

Praise for Piper Perish:

"A love-letter to the artistic life, filled with glamour, passion, hunger, and heartbreak."

—Hope Larson, New York Times bestselling author, graphic novelist, and two-time Eisner Award winner

★ "Soulful reading for any artistic teen with a dream."

—Booklist, starred review

"Piper Perish is smart, fresh, and utterly engaging. Infused with a love and respect for art that shines through on every page, Kayla Cagan's debut is equal parts funny and heartbreaking. You won't put it down."

—Brandy Colbert, author of Pointe and Little & Lion

"With Andy Warhol as her muse and art school as her dream, Piper Perish is a character readers will root for. Style and wit, intelligence and heart, genuineness and longing: this girl is a gem. If you've ever yearned to be part of a bigger world than the one you were born in, you'll find a home in this book."

—Jennifer Buehler, 2016 president of the Assembly on Literature for Adolescents of the NCTE (ALAN)

Kayla Cagan is a writer and playwright based in Los Angeles. Her first book, Piper Perish, received universal praise and was a Barnes & Noble Best Book of the Month.

Crystals: The Stone Deck

78 Crystals to Energize Your Life

By Andrew Smart

Photographs by Jason Wyche

This luminous deck makes it easy to bring crystal energy to everyday life. Each card features a photo of a gorgeous crystal on the front and an illuminating description of the stone's powers on the back (such as why to use serpentine for a fresh start; ametrine for indecision; and kunzaniite for love). Users can select a crystal based on their needs or pull a card at random to see what the universe has in store. Curated by the makers of Stone, an app for crystal healing, and brimming with positive energy, this deck is a practical and beautiful accessory for modern mystics and spirituality seekers.

The Moon Journal

A journey of self-reflection through the astrological year

By Sandy Sitron

The moon, with its illuminating, perpetual cycle that ebbs and flows, is a powerful force that affects all of nature and daily life. This beautiful journal uses the moon's movement to connect readers with nature and encourage reflection on dreams, goals, relationships, and so much more. Filled with light informative astrological explanations and helpful prompts for guiding reflection based on the moon's cycle, this journal invites readers to create change, set intentions, and manifest more in life.

Advice to Remember

A Journal
 By Lisa Nola
 Illustrated by Bijou Karman

Wise words come from many sources across our lives: family and friends, books and movies, and our own life experiences. Advice can be as simple as “don’t eat dinner past 8PM” or as thoughtful as “be kind to yourself.” With charmingly illustrated quotes sprinkled throughout and plenty of space to record favorite advice and personal wisdom, this journal invites users to create a keepsake of valuable insights that can be referenced for years to come.
